

Biography Ms Sybille Kiesewetter

Sybille Kiesewetter is a psychologist, mediator and trainer. Between 2003 and 2008 she worked with Christoph C. Paul and Eberhard Carl to develop and coordinate the project “Mediation in International Family Conflicts” within the German Federal Association for Family Mediation.

Since 2008 she has been Managing Director of the non-profit organization MiKK (Mediation bei internationalen Kindschaftskonflikten - Mediation in International Conflicts involving Parents and Children).

From 2010 to 2012 she was concept developer and lead trainer in the EU project “Training in International Family Mediation”. Sybille Kiesewetter runs a private practice in the fields of (international) family mediation, supervision and counselling. She has published numerous articles and books on mediation and psychotherapy and is co-editor of the online publication Cross-Border Mediation, a collection of laws on mediation worldwide.