

Alexandre Boiché

Alexandre has a Ph.D. in Private International Law and has been a lawyer at the Paris Bar since 2003. He is an accredited specialist in Family, International and European Law.

Alexandre is a specialist in international family litigation and notably conflicts of jurisdictions or conflicts of laws and recognition of foreign judgments. As such, he conducts numerous judicial training programs for colleagues in this domain both in France and abroad. Seeking to promote sustainable solutions, Alexandre also specializes in the drafting of international marriage contracts, divorce and parental authority agreements. He is also trained in collaborative law.

Alexandre is a fellow of the International Academy of Family Lawyers (IAFL), Comité Français de Droit International Privé and the Association Louis Chatin for the Defence of the Rights of the Child.

Since 2006, Alexandre has been an editor for the “Actualité Juridique Famille” law review edited by Dalloz.
