

Véronique Chauveau

Véronique was admitted as a lawyer to the Paris Bar in 1984 and is an expert in International Family Law. She lectures in France and abroad, and has provided her expertise on French family law and international child abduction in multiple jurisdictions including New York (USA), Istanbul (Turkey), London (UK) and Dublin (Ireland). Véronique has been a key expert for the EU in the Russian Federation. She speaks French and English.